Location of start number and chip

Competitors are required to place the start number on the handlebars so that it is not twisted. i.e. behind both eyelets for mounting on the handlebars. The placement of the numbers will be checked by the referees, and in the case of wrong placement, there is a risk of disqualification. The number is returned after the races, just like the chip.

Competitors are required to place the chip on the front fork of the front wheel of the footbike above the ejector, or on the other hand, the fork from the CC sensor. The placement of the chips will be checked by the referees and in case of wrong placement disqualification from the race. By accepting the chip, the competitor undertakes that if he loses the chip, he will reimburse the organizer on the spot for the damage in the amount of CZK 500!

Starts:
Race starts will be organized in starting rows, the competitor is obliged to obey the instructions of the organizer and respect the instructions given before the start of the race.
The competitors with the best results this season will stand in the first row, the other rows according to the same principle. They all start at once.

When leveling the starting waves, the organizer also takes into account the overall results of the Czech Championship 2023. The organizer reserves the right to determine the number of starting rows and change the number of competitors in one row based on the total number of entries.

The race is held according to the Rules of the Circuit and the Czech Championship (IKSA) Rules for the year 2024. The race is measured electronically via chips.

Competitor under 18 years on the starting day is obliged upon request to submit a written approval of at least one of the legal representatives (parents) for permission to start the race (pattern at the end of this document).

The program can be modified slightly during the event, follow the instructions from moderators and organizers.
The organizer is entitled to adjust the length of individual races or timetable, mainly due to adverse weather conditions. The organizer reserves the right to make changes to the program due to unforeseeable circumstances.

The Czech footbike rules apply. Breaking of these rules means disqualification.

For the health of the athletes is responsible the national organization that nominated them and the athletes themeselves. Athletes participates with the knowledge of their good health (parents are responsible for their children).

Competitors, accompany and spectators participate at the event at their own risk and responsibility. The organizers assume no responsibility for any injury, loss or damage to any equipment before and during the event, for damages caused during the race by participants, or to the participants. Each participant must be properly physically and mentally ready. Competitors are advised to have established individual health and accident insurance.

The organizer reserves the right carry out tests use of illicit stimulants (doping) and alcohol.

Protests can be submitted within 20 minutes after the publication of the results with a deposit of 500 CZK. The deposit will be returned if the protest is accepted.

Participant also agrees with the publication of photos and video of the race and their use in favor of promoting footbike sport and other events organized by the organizer and the Czech Footbike Association.
